Internationd Competition and Community Spirit

The tournament welcome teams from Thailand and overseas, with participating clubs representing a diverse international rugby community.

Beyond the competition itself, the event aims to strengthen Chiang Mai's position as a destination for international sporting events and sports tourism, bringing visitors, players and supporters into the region.

Supporting Rugby and Player Welfare

A key partner for the 2026 tournament is Bangkok Hospital Chiang Mai, which will provide medical team and ambulance support throughout the event.

BANGKOK SOUTHERNERS RUGBY

THAILAND

The Southerners Rugby posse is riding up to the wild northern territory to put the finishing touches on a mighty fine 2026 run. Fresh off a string of solid victories these past few weeks, the gang enters the Chiang Mai 11s aiming to haul the cup back home, just like they did three long winters back.

After charging all the way to the final showdown last rodeo, the boys are fixing to come out guns blazing at high noon and keep the wingding till the rooster crows. Whether out on the dusty, untamed fields of the Chiang Mai 11s or at the hoedown back in town, the Southerners are gonna send off the last trail ride of the year in true outlaw style. Yeehaw!

BANGKOK BANGER BELLES RUGBY CLUB

Bangkok BANGERS Belles

Meet the Banger Belles:

Bangkok-based, rugby-obsessed, fitness-loving and always up for a good time. We're a fast-growing women's rugby club with a serious passion for the game and an equally serious commitment to having fun.

Don't let the social side fool you. We love a good party, but we love a good tackle just as much. Having faced national and professional sides, as well as clubs from across Thailand and Southeast Asia, we've grown into a team that thrives on competition, challenges and a healthy dose of chaos.

We're coming to Chiang Mai 11s, ready to test ourselves against new opposition, make new friends and hopefully bring home some silverware. And once the final whistle blows? You can bet we'll be among the first on the dance floor and the last ones standing.

Bangers on the pitch, Belles off it.

LANNA LIONESSES THAILAND

Meet the Lanna Lionesses

The Lanna Lionesses arrive at the Chiangmai International 11s ready to make their mark! Recent Chiangmai International 7s Plate Champions and Thai Rugby Union National Division 2 Champions, the Lionesses have firmly established themselves as a team to watch. Last year, they came agonisingly close to lifting the Cup, eventually falling to the Bangkok Southerners in the final.

They know what it takes to compete at the highest level, but can they go one step further this year and bring home the Cup?

One thing is certain – the Lionesses are coming to compete!

SOUTHERNERS LADIES RUGBY

BANGKOK SOUTHERNERS LADIES RUGBY

THAILAND

The Southerners Women's Rugby Team is a dynamic and diverse group of women brought together by a shared passion for the game – and a healthy dose of team spirit on and off the pitch.

Based in the heart of Bangkok, our team is a proud mix of Thai and international players from all walks of life. Some of us grew up with a rugby ball in hand, while others picked up the sport a little later – sometimes by accident, sometimes on a dare, and sometimes out of pure curiosity. But what unites us all is a strong sense of community, commitment, and fun.

Whether it's training under the Bangkok sun, battling it out on game day, or sharing laughs over post-match beers, we've built a team culture that's both competitive and welcoming. It's a place where every player – no matter their skill level, background, or language – is supported, celebrated, and pushed to grow both on and off the field.

We compete in local leagues and regional tournaments across Thailand and Southeast Asia, proudly representing the Southerners tradition of passion, respect, and relentless energy. And while we love to win, we're just as proud of the bonds we build along the way.

ONE TEAM ONE PASSION ONE FAMILY

Sea Barbarians Ladies Rugby

The SEA (South East Asia) Barbarians is a regional invitational women's rugby and touch rugby team built on inclusivity, camaraderie, and a love for the game rather than a permanent, single club position.

Overview & Identity

- Concept: Modeled after the traditional invitational "Barbarians" spirit, the SEA Barbarians assemble temporary squads for major Southeast Asian tournaments. They give individual players – whether traveling solo, from clubs unable to field a full side, or coaches and parents wanting to swap the sidelines for the pitch – a chance to play.
- Core Values: Inclusivity, community building, welcoming all experience levels, and celebrating women's rugby across Asia.

Core Values

- Inclusivity
- Community Building
- Welcoming All Experience Levels
- Celebrating Women's Rugby Across Asia

Common Contributors

The squad frequently integrates talent from regional clubs such as the Lanna Rugby Club (Chiang Mai), Bangkok Banger Belles, Đại Việt Rugby / Hoa Binh (Vietnam), and the Saigon Geckos.

Notable Tournament Appearances & Highlights

- Chiangmai International Touch & 7s: Regularly fields teams in the open and mixed divisions, including facing the Thailand national women's team (Thailand Firebacks/Firecrackers) in showcase exhibition series and finishing as runner-up/plate contenders (such as reaching the Women's Plate final at the Chiangmai International 7s).
- Phuket International Tournaments (11s / 7s): Competed strongly in events like the Phuket International Rugby 11s and Phuket 7s.
- Saigon Women's 10s: Participated as a multi-national regional touring side hosted in Ho Chi Minh City.

RUGBY MAKING A DIFFERENCE

At Lanna Rugby Club, we believe rugby is about more than what happens on the pitch. It is about creating opportunities, building confidence and bringing people together.

In partnership with:

KIDS ARK

Baan Dek FOUNDATION
มูลนิธิเครือข่ายพัฒนาบ้านเด็ก

Through our partnerships with Baan Dek Foundation and Kids Ark Foundation, we use rugby to support young people from disadvantaged backgrounds across Chiang Mai.

Our youth programme, Lanna Cubs, provides free and subsidised rugby opportunities for children and young people, helping them develop sporting skills, teamwork, confidence and friendships in a safe and supportive environment.

We currently support 95 young people, providing access to regular training, coaching, equipment and opportunities to compete in tournaments. For many of these children, rugby offers much more than a sport. It provides a sense of belonging, positive role models and the chance to be part of a wider community.

We are incredibly proud of how far the programme has grown and grateful to Baan Dek Foundation and Kids Ark Foundation for the work they do and the young people they support.

THANK YOU, RUGBY 11s!

A huge thank you to Rugby 11s for supporting our community programme and helping us continue to create opportunities for local young people.

Your support helps us make rugby more accessible and ensures that more children can experience the benefits of being part of a team.

Whether it's helping with playing kit, equipment, tournament participation or ongoing training, every contribution makes a difference.

Together, we can continue to grow the game and change lives through rugby.

The Lanna Golden Lions are bringing experience, character and plenty of team spirit to the Chiangmai International 11s! Last year's Vets Cup runners-up, narrowly missing out against the Bangkok Southerners, the Golden Lions are always ready for a challenge. Their most recent outing saw them defeat the Colombo Synergy All Stars in the Men's Vets 10s at the Chiangmai International 7s. While they're always keen to compete, the Golden Lions know rugby is about more than the result – they're here to enjoy themselves, make memories and have fun both on and off the field!

Experience counts. Age is just a number.

"Bangkok Southerners (Vets) In last year's write up, we made the prediction that Xav would be top try scorer... and he was. So this year's prediction is... a bloody good time."

"Doesn't seem like there's going to be that much rugby, so hopefully we can clock off early and get on the Shandys."

"No games Sunday so don't need to worry about hangovers. Let's have it!"
